

H. Peter Higer, M.D.

(Curriculum/personal record)

Radiologist, focused on modern cross-sectional imaging (computed tomography (CT) and magnetic resonance imaging (MRI)).

Study of mechanical engineering, dentistry, medicine and sociology in Darmstadt, Bonn, Marburg and Frankfurt.

1976 research fellow at the Center for Psychosocial Basics of Medicine, clinical center of the University of Frankfurt.

1978 residency at the academic teaching hospital AK St. George, Hamburg.

1980 MD degree in Hamburg on sequelae of treatment of kidney carcinoma.

1981 awarded with the Boris Rajewsky Medal of the Association Europeenne de Radiologie for outstanding scientific achievements.

1984 Senior Physician at the Albers-Schönberg-Institute of Radiology at the Hospital St. Georg in Hamburg.

1984 Transfer to Deutsche Klinik für Diagnostik (DKD), Wiesbaden and research fellow in the "Diagnostic Value of the Magnetic Resonance Imaging " research project of the Federal Ministry for Research and Technology (BMFT).

1985 admission into the Radiological Society Of North America (RSNA).

1985 head of the Magnetic Resonance Imaging department

1988 head of the cross-sectional imaging department and eventually head of Radiology at the DKD and medical director of the MRI research project.

1989 Member of the Association of SHI-Accredited Physicians.

1992 Radiological private practice in Frankfurt..

1994 Establishment and management of the MRI department at the academic Teaching Hospital Nordwest, Frankfurt, in the context of a hospital-practice cooperation.

1998 formation of the joint practice Asmar, Higer, Stehling & Partners, Frankfurt.

2001 Training as a Facilitator for Quality Circles. Management of medical quality circle "interdisciplinary conversation" as well as board member functions at a Frankfurt-Doctors-Network.

2003 radiological private practice with an open MRI in Giessen.

2003 publicizing the newsletter "aktuelle Radiologie" (Current radiology).

2006 Operating an MSCT at private practice rooms at the St. Joseph's Hospital, Giessen.

End of 2008 establishing the main practice and a 2nd open MRI at the Health center Martinshof, Giessen.

The curriculum of Dr. Higer covers the publication and cooperation at 18 books, over 80 scientific publications and over 130 lectures.